2022 Miss West Tennessee State Fair Fairest of the Fair Contestant Eligibility Statement & Royalty Agreement

As a contestant in the 2022 West Tennessee State Miss Fairest of the Fair, I understand and agree to the following statements:

- I have neither participated in the State Fairest of the Fair nor have I won another pageant that would make me eligible for the 2023 State Fairest of the Fair.
- I am now and always have been a female. I am single, never married, and have no children.
- As the 2022 Queen, I will be the official hostess at all events at the West Tennessee State Fair the remaining days of the fair.
- I will attend the pageants on September 14th & 15th to crown the 2022 queens and royalty for 2 pageants each night. I am invited to present on Saturday’s pageants as well, but not required.
- I will refrain from any conduct that would result in embarrassment to my title. Such as, but not limited to:
 - Use of alcoholic beverages or other controlled substances.
 - Behavior that results in disciplinary action by school officials; or arrest, indictment, or conviction for a crime against any municipality, state, or the United States.
 - Public fighting or cursing.
 - Pregnancy and/or marriage.
- If I am found to have participated in any misconduct, I shall voluntarily surrender my title.
- Minimum of one hour of community service per month wearing my crown and sash. Send a description and picture to JC Coughlin at ccoughlin2121@yahoo.com.

West Tennessee State Fair’s Fairest of the Fair Queen will be a representative at the Tennessee’s State Fairest of the Fair contest in Nashville held January 2023.

I hereby grant the West Tennessee State Fair permission to use my photograph in any or all publications and in any and all other media as decided by the West Tennessee State Fair Board of Pageant Committee. I will make no monetary or other claim against West Tennessee State Fair, its Board Members, Directors, or nay others involved in the fair for the use of information and photographs.
